Special COVID 19 Substitute Class

On-line Speed Reading Course - Information & Registration

After many years of teaching live courses, we are offering our online course in an abbreviated format for maximum learning in the shortest amount of time. In this program you will learn the basic speedreading concepts in about an hour with strategies that will increase your speed immediately.

Right now, we cannot offer you our in-person classes, however, we want to give you the opportunity to improve your reading speed and comprehension while we all wait-out the 2020 social distancing mandates and further develop virtual courses..

We are offering you this on-line program for the attractive price of FREE. Just fill out the form below, email it to us and we will send you the link for the program.

This on-line program will change forever how you look at reading – and you will learn:

- A new definition of reading.
- Three types of readers and which are you?
- Your current reading rate & your potential reading rate.
- How to read up to 100 words per minute faster now.
- The techniques that speed readers use and how they apply to your needs.
- Ideas to improve speed and comprehension immediately.
